

LOCALS

Job work promptly, neatly and cheaply done at the News office.

The entire road from Wailuku to Lahaina is now in first class condition.

The choral society held a practice meeting on Monday evening at Alexander Hall.

There are forty-seven licensed hacks in Wailuku, and all seem to be doing something.

Travel is quite lively on Maui this week, and the hotels, both at Lahaina and Wailuku are running full.

Sorehead is beginning to appear among young chickens in Wailuku, coincident with the mango season.

A little Japanese girl fell in the Hamakua poke ditch and was drowned, during the early part of the week.

If you really want to do business on Maui, inform the public of that fact through the advertising columns of the News.

Considerable sickness, principally fevers is reported in Wailuku this week, probably the after effects of cold snap.

Up Kaula harbor has been bare vessels this week, the next one expected being the S. S. Pareka from San Francisco, via Honolulu.

The two water leases on Maui were sold to Hon. H. P. Baldwin, and the H. C. & S. Co. will in due time receive much benefit from the purchase.

LOST.—Between Hamakua and Lahaina on Sunday 23rd inst. Ladies Bracelet composed of eight Hawaiian 10 cent pieces. "Reward" MAUI NEWS.

Market street is beginning to wear quite a business-like aspect, with the advent of new blocks of buildings. Let the good work of weeding out the shacks be pushed.

NOTICE.—There is still one store to let on the first floor of Pythian Hall building, and any one desiring to secure it should make immediate application to

D. L. MEYERS.

The News received a package of panicle grass this week, and efforts will be made to propagate this valuable fodder. If successful, we will divide with our neighbors.

The road is in admirable condition on Wailuku and Maiala Bay. Much the road board deserve limited credit. The road to Kihui has also been put in fine condition.

All those who have received statements from the business end of the MAUI NEWS, are requested to give the matter their undivided attention for a few minutes, more especially those who owe back subscription dues.

See the new ad. of the Pioneer Hotel at Lahaina. Manager Freeland is building up a fine hotel business in the city of palm-trees, and the stockholders are looking pleased enough to have their pictures taken.

Several ninrods of Wailuku went up in the Waikapu mountains last Sunday, and returned with numerous adventures to relate. One of the hunters lost himself and his watch. He finally found himself, but the watch is still missing.

The Paia Plantation Store has changed its ad. this week, not because they don't still carry the largest and best assortment of Gent's Shirts on the Island, but just "naturally" because they love to talk about something good to eat.

The cool weather which has prevailed at Wailuku for the past two weeks has abated, and was followed by south winds which suddenly swung round the north bringing a heavy rain storm on Thursday night. The rain has been quite general on Maui, and will probably continue for several days.

The members of the M. A. A., as well as those who desire to become members, should make it a special point to attend the regular meeting at the Wailuku court-house on Monday evening, as several matters of special importance will come up, for discussion. Bring fifty cents with you and come early.

A well attended stockholders' meeting of the Maui Soda & Ice Co. was held at the Wailuku Bank on Wednesday evening. The following officers were elected: R. A. Wadsworth, President; Jas. Kirkland, Vice President; Geo. Hons, Secretary; C. D. Lufkin, Treasurer; F. J. Wheeler, Auditor. Bylaws were adopted, and other important business transacted.

Athletic Notes.

On last Saturday afternoon, the polo team of the M. A. A.'s held a practice game at Kahului. Among the players were Frank Baldwin, L. R. Crook, W. H. Cornwell, Jr., George Cummings, V. Ault, James Thompson, George Henderson, Geo. Keeney, H. Weller and Chas. Braun. Although a practice game of novices, some on green mounts, still it was interesting, and served to determine the fact that the new team has some high class polo talent in its ranks, and that a match game with the Makawao team is a certainty in the near future.

On Monday evening, a special meeting of the M. A. A.'s was held at the Wailuku court-house, to discuss polo and arrange details. Mr. Frank Baldwin was elected captain and instructor of the M. A. A. polo team.

A committee of three consisting of George Hons, Frank Baldwin and H. Weller, was appointed to make arrangements, if possible to secure an addition to Wells Park, for polo purposes, as the Kahului grounds are rather slippery for polo practice. The committee is to report at the regular meeting on next Monday night, at which time a full attendance of members is desired, as several other matters of interest are to come up, notably several amendments to the by-laws.

A practice game of polo was proposed for this afternoon at Kahului. Subscriptions, back dues and new membership fees are pouring in, and the Association will soon be in good financial standing.

The members of the polo club are to furnish their own ponies and mallets, and the Association will furnish the polo balls.

The war cry of the Morning Star aggregation of ball smashers is: "Who are—who are—who are we? We are—we are M.R.'s. See?"

An Elegant Luau.

Mr. C. B. Wells, manager of the Wailuku Plantation entertained Manager Gjerdrum of Hana and Manager Meyers of Hamoa at an elegant luau on last Saturday evening. While the feast was a genuine native luau, yet it was embellished with certain haole features that added to the charm of the occasion. At the close of the luau, dancing was indulged in to a late hour. Among the invited guests present were: Manager Gjerdrum, Hana; Manager Meyers and wife, Hamoa; Miss Pratt, Mr. C. D. Lufkin and family, Judge and Mrs. J. Kalua, Dr. and Mrs. J. Weddick, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coke, Mr. and Mrs. Kepoikai, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ault, Mr. and Mrs. C. Waldeyer, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kellin.

New Mail Contract Let.

Mr. A. do Rego of the Iao Stables and stage line has been awarded the mail contract between Wailuku and Lahaina, as well as several minor lines on Maui, for the term of four years from July 1, 1902. This contract embraces the same routes for which the Iao Stables are now carrying the mails, but the contract price for the new contract is considerably lower than that for which the mail is being carried at present. The new contract price is a little over $120 per month.

The do'Rego Bros. have been very prompt and efficient in the matter of handling of the mails, and people generally will learn with pleasure that they have secured the new contract.

Wm. Saffery succeeds Hayselden

Capt. Wm. Saffery has accepted the situation of Deputy Sheriff at Wailuku, to succeed A. N. Hayselden, who recently resigned. Capt. Saffery has proved a model police officer, and will doubtless fill his new position with satisfaction. Mr. Hayselden was entertained at a dinner at the Maui Hotel last night by Attorney Jas. L. Coke, after which he left on the Kinau for Honolulu to enjoy a short holiday before entering upon bucolic pursuits on North Maui.

The American Shipping Co.

Mr. James T. Taylor promoter of the American Shipping Co., left for Honolulu on Thursday, to look after the interests of his company. A proposition is being considered to lease the "Eclipse" and put her on the route between Maui and Honolulu at an early date.

DYING ON HIS WEDDING TRIP.

Edward H. Macfarlane of Hawaii at Death's Door in Chicago.

CHICAGO, February 15.—Lying beyond the hope of recovery and at the point of death in his rooms at the Auditorium Hotel is Edward H. Macfarlane, a resident of Honolulu and a prominent man in mercantile circles of the Hawaiian Islands. The case is a particularly sad one, Mr. Macfarlane having been married only ten days ago to Miss Florence Ballinger of San Francisco. The couple came to Chicago on their wedding trip. Mr. Macfarlane was suddenly taken ill last Tuesday morning. The house physician of the Auditorium, Dr. A. R. Elliott, was summoned immediately, but by night the patient was suffering with an acute attack of pleuropneumonia, from which there has been no rally. In addition the formation of an abscess of the chest has rendered the case hopeless. Mr. Macfarlane's brother, George Macfarlane, who was for many years Chamberlain to the late King of Hawaii, left here last Monday morning to return to the Islands, but was telegraphed for when the illness of his brother became critical, and is expected here tomorrow.

Edward Macfarlane was born on the Island of Oahu 49 years ago, and his home has always been in Honolulu. Jointly with his brother George he is the proprietor of the Hawaiian Hotel and the head of a flourishing wholesale liquor business in Honolulu. He is also largely interested in the sugar plantations of the Islands. He is the third of five brothers, George Macfarlane, director of the Bank of Hawaii; Henry, Clarence and F. W. Macfarlane, president of the Union Feed Company of San Francisco. All five were born in the Islands.
